

Article - Health - General

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§13-3102.

The Overdose Response Program is a program administered by the Department for the purpose of providing a means of authorizing certain individuals to administer naloxone to an individual experiencing, or believed to be experiencing, opioid overdose to help prevent a fatality when medical services are not immediately available.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)